

ROSETTA STONE ONLINE LANGUAGE PROGRAM

The Base Library is providing access to the Rosetta Stone Online Language Learning Program to Air Force military and civilians whose permanent duty station is Wright-Patterson AFB. Rosetta Stone offers immersion language training in over 30 languages and is available via the Internet from almost any computer.

USAGE POLICIES:

There are three categories of users. Those in each category will be entitled to an account, but a larger number of accounts may be reserved for those in Category 1. Users in all categories must apply at the Base library and provide an ID for validation.

Category 1

Air Force military and DOD civilians with deployment orders. (Copy of orders or tasking letter required)

Category 2

Non-deploying Air Force military and DOD civilians.

Category 3

Air Force: Guard, Reserve, retirees and dependents.

(Note: These accounts may be deactivated without notice due to Cat 1 & 2 demands)

Those listed below are not eligible for a WPAFB Library Rosetta Stone Account:

Members of other military branches.
Contractors and temporary civilian employees.

Due to the limited licenses available, we will closely manage usage of User Accounts to allow access to active users.

If you request a User Account but don't login and use a lesson within 2 weeks of account activation, we will deactivate your account.

If you use this resource but are inactive (you don't login and use a lesson) for 2 weeks, we will deactivate your User Account.

Your User Account can be reactivated when you are ready to use it, unless there is a waiting list. Account will remain open for two months. Extensions may be granted on a case by case basis.
